TITLE: Establishment of Self

SERIES: States of Awareness 1/5

MEDIUM: Acrylic on paper

DIMENSIONS: 22 × 22 in

YEAR OF CREATION: 2026

Availability status: sold

DESCRIPTION: Establishment of Self is the first painting in the States of Awareness series. A mountain landscape crowned by a towering Shivling symbolizes the source of consciousness. Waterfalls descend into open grasslands before disappearing into a dense forest, representing the unfolding journey of life. In the foreground, a luminous nest with one hatched and one unhatched egg symbolizes birth and infinite potential. The young bird embodies the freedom to choose. Through choice, experience, and karma, the sense of self gradually takes form, inviting the viewer to reflect on identity as a process established through the life we choose to live.

TITLE: The Weight of 'I'

SERIES: States of Awareness 2/5

MEDIUM: Acrylic on paper

DIMENSIONS: 22 × 22 in

YEAR OF CREATION: 2026

Availability status: sold

DESCRIPTION: The Weight of 'I' is the second painting in the States of Awareness series. A luminous bird journeys through a dense forest where light cannot reach the ground, symbolizing the mind after the formation of identity. As the sense of "I" emerges, so does the instinct to protect it. The painting reflects on fear as a natural consequence of attachment to the self, inviting the viewer to contemplate the burden of identity.

TITLE: The Observer

SERIES: States of Awareness 3/5

MEDIUM: Acrylic on paper

DIMENSIONS: 22 × 22 in

YEAR OF CREATION: 2026

Availability status: sold

DESCRIPTION: The Observer is the third painting in the States of Awareness series. Deep within the dense forest, the bird encounters a still Nilgai, symbolizing awareness. In this silent meeting, the bird realizes that thoughts, emotions, and fear need not be identified with—they can simply be observed. The painting marks the shift from attachment to witnessing, revealing awareness as the quiet presence behind every experience.

TITLE: The Bliss

SERIES: States of Awareness 4/5

MEDIUM: Acrylic on paper

DIMENSIONS: 22 × 22 in

YEAR OF CREATION: 2026

Availability status: sold

DESCRIPTION: The Bliss is the fourth painting in the States of Awareness series. Guided by a swarm of fireflies, the bird rises above the forest into the open sky, where it witnesses both light and darkness as parts of the same whole. The painting symbolizes the joy that arises from awareness—not through escaping the world, but through seeing it with clarity, freedom, and an unburdened mind.

TITLE: A Small Fire

SERIES: States of Awareness 5/5

MEDIUM: Acrylic on paper

DIMENSIONS: 22 × 22 in

YEAR OF CREATION: 2026

Availability status: sold

DESCRIPTION: A Small Fire is the fifth and final painting in the States of Awareness series. From above the forest, the bird witnesses a fire burning in the valley below. What once might have appeared overwhelming is now seen within the vastness of the landscape. The painting reflects on perspective, reminding us that the mind often magnifies its struggles, while awareness reveals them as fleeting moments within a much larger whole.
